The Diploma of Remedial Massage is designed to impart the expertise that practitioners need to excel in the discipline. VET FEE-HELP is available for this course, allowing you to study now, pay later!

The Diploma of Remedial Massage is taught by experienced and highly qualified industry professionals. It includes clinic-based learning with supervised hands-on practice with real clients.

Those undertaking the diploma receive training across all aspects of remedial massage: massage therapy, lymphatic drainage, deep tissue massage, and treatment for athletes and patients with chronic diseases. They also gain important training in professional practice, legal and ethical compliance, anatomy and physiology, and clinic management.

Who Should Attend
Remedial massage is the manipulation of muscle and connective tissue to promote relaxation and wellbeing, relieve pain, treat injury, and increase circulation. The Diploma of Remedial Massage delivers the education and training required to launch a career as a remedial massage therapist.

This nationally accredited training is suited to recent school leavers, those wishing to change career, or to individuals currently engaged in a related field who wish to add remedial massage to their existing skill set. If you are an overseas-trained remedial massage therapist looking to ensure your training meets Australian requirements, this course program is ideally suited to your needs.

Course Structure
This course is delivered online over a duration of 72 weeks. This is divided into 3 study periods, each comprising 24 weeks.

Prerequisites
Entry to the Diploma of Remedial Massage requires demonstration of competence through a recognised training program or recognition process in the nominated units of competency* from the Certificate IV in Massage Therapy Practice.

Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL)
